Dunoon & The Kyles of Bute

Known as the 'Gateway to the Highlands', the popular resort of Dunoon lies in a delightful picturesque setting on the Cowal Peninsula. The town is surrounded by the rolling hills and woodlands of the Argyll Forest Park and has some lovely gardens and a nice long promenade for that relaxing stroll, plus the Victorian Pier with its wonderful panoramic views across the Firth of Clyde. Dunoon became a prime holiday destination back in the 1800's in the heyday of the paddle steamer and the only remaining seagoing paddle steamer, the SV Waverley, is still a frequent visitor to Dunoon.

Esplanade Hotel ★★★

A long established family owned and run hotel offering a warm and friendly welcome and service, situated on Dunoon's traffic free west bay promenade with superb views over the Clyde. There is a sun terrace above the hotel gardens plus the restaurant and bar with entertainment provided on most evenings including a traditional Scottish evening of Pipers and highland dancers. The hotel bar is also renowned for its selection of some 120 Scottish malt whiskies. All bedrooms are en suite with television, telephone and tea/coffee tray. A lift serves most rooms. (Please note this hotel is completely non smoking)
