Tenby & Pembrokeshire

One of the prettiest and most popular resorts in Wales, renowned for its lovely golden beaches and a picturesque harbour. Tenby has a fascinating history dating back thousands of years with attractions that include the 13th century town walls, the Five Arches barbican and the 15th century St Mary's Church. For those who enjoy walking there is also the Pembrokeshire Coast Path part of Britain's only coastal National Park.

Cliffe Norton Hotel ★★

This friendly, family run hotel overlooks North Bay and is only a short walk from the town centre. One of the main features of this 19th century hotel is its elegant winding staircase. There is a cosy bar/lounge with dance floor where regular entertainment is featured. The bedrooms are all en suite with television and tea & coffee making facilities. A lift serves most floors.
